PLAYER BIO

McKenna G Hood is a 5'11" post/center for the Union County Panthers in Blairsville, Georgia, and a Class of 2027 college prospect. A physical interior presence, she finishes through contact at the rim, rebounds in traffic on both ends, protects the paint, and has extended her range to a reliable jumper from the high post. Region 7-AA All-Region 2nd Team selection who plays club ball with Storm. Actively seeking NCAA D2, D3 and NAIA opportunities.

SCOUT EVALUATIONS

"She has the size and skill at the post position that college coaches are looking for, plus the strength which was on full display as she finished through contact at the rim each time I saw her play this summer."

BJ BATSON, SCOUT — PREP GIRLS HOOPS

"Tough on the block battling for rebounds and getting into position to score. She used shot fakes to get to the rim and did a good job keeping the ball high and away from her opponents."

MINDY MCCARTHY, LEAD SCOUT — PREP GIRLS HOOPS

"Hood expertly played her role in the frontcourt, making a living scoring out of rolls to the rim, and also showed the propensity to knock down jumpers from the high post. Her offseason work is paying off."

KYLE SANDY — SANDY'S SPIEL

STRENGTHS — D2 / D3 / NAIA FIT

- Finishes through contact at the rim; strong, physical interior scorer
- Rebounds in traffic on both ends and protects the paint (multi-block games)
- High-post jumper and screen-and-roll finishing stretch opposing bigs from the rim
